Want us to install it for you?

We offer an optional installation service where one of our engineers installs the extension on your server for you. Please contact sales@ontapgroup.com for details.

If you experience any issues with the extension, please document in detail what has happened. Include screenshots and error messages and visit: www.ontapgroup.com/customer/account/ and create a new account (if you do not already have one). Once logged in, click on MY SUPPORT TICKETS, and then the 'Submit a Ticket' button to create a new support ticket.
